

EARTHQUAKES: Be Prepared BEFORE, DURING, and AFTER

April, 2006 - Disaster Preparedness Month and the Centennial of the Great San Francisco Earthquake and Fire of 1906

For more information regarding earthquake preparedness and the 1906 earthquake, visit the California Geological Survey website at www.conservation.ca.gov/cgs

1906

FERRY BUILDING

NOB HILL

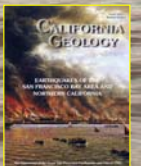

2006

CALIFORNIA GEOLOGICAL SURVEY (CGS) is regarded as the primary source of geological and seismological products and services for decision making by California's government agencies, its businesses and the public.

Purchase our new Special Edition of California Geology Magazine titled: "Earthquakes of the San Francisco Bay Area and Northern California". Visit the CGS website or call (916) 327-1850.

Above: 1906 painting titled "San Francisco Fire, 1906" by W.A. Coulter, courtesy of the W.A. Coulter Retrospective Exhibition Committee of the Paul and Linda Kahn Foundation.
Below: 2006 photo of San Francisco by Vladimir Graker of the California Geological Survey (CGS).