

CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION
Land Conservation (Williamson) Act Enrollment

Fiscal Year	Calendar Year	Total Reported Acreage*	Notes
1990-91	1990	15,969,159
1991-92	1991	15,946,783
1992-93	1992	15,942,758
1993-94	1993	15,952,365
1994-95	1994	15,952,144
1995-96	1995	15,908,538
1996-97	1996	15,812,511
1997-98	1997	15,889,804
1998-99	1998	15,925,301
1999-00	1999	15,977,116
2000-01	2000	15,936,437
2001-02	2001	16,344,433
2002-03	2002	16,504,721
2003-04	2003	16,560,132
2004-05	2004	16,640,193
2005-06	2005	16,581,920
2006-07	2006	16,580,987
2007-08	2007	16,565,519
2008-09	2008	16,583,467
2009-10	2009	14,996,564	The following counties did not report enrollment figures for FY 09-10: Mendocino, Modoc, Riverside, San Diego, San Mateo, Santa Cruz, Stanislaus, Trinity, and Tuolumne.
2010-11	2010	16,369,609	The following counties did not report enrollment figures for FY 10-11: Lake, Nevada, Orange, Plumas, Riverside, San Mateo, and Trinity.
2011-12	2011	15,016,828	The following counties did not report enrollment figures for FY 11-12: Mendocino, Modoc, Nevada, Orange, Plumas, Riverside, San Mateo, Stanislaus, and Trinity.
2012-13	2012	15,387,785	The following counties did not report enrollment figures for FY 12-13: Lake, Mendocino, Orange, Riverside, San Mateo, Trinity, and Yolo. Imperial County did not report, however, all contracted acres in the county were placed in nonrenewal status in 2011.
2013-14	2013	15,412,524	The following counties have not yet reported enrollment figures for FY 13-14: Lake, Lassen, Mendocino, Orange, San Mateo, Santa Cruz, and Trinity. Imperial County did not report, however, all contracted acres in the county were placed in nonrenewal status in 2011.
AVERAGE		15,690,842

* Enrollment reported by participating jurisdictions as part of the annual subvention application process. Totals include both continuing term and nonrenewal Williamson Act contracted land, as well as a small amount of other enforceably restricted non-Williamson Act acreage.